

Cover artwork of a Clark's Nutcracker by Evangelina, a first grader who was one of the 2016 Youth Bird Drawing Contest winners.

Each spring, Tahoma Audubon's annual Youth Bird Drawing Contest connects young people with nature through field observation and artistic expression.

A gift to Tahoma Audubon on behalf of birds + their habitats has been made in your honor by:

Wishing you happiness and the joy of nature.

This is a gift you can feel good about!

Honor gifts such as this one help sustain Tahoma Audubon's mission to connect people with birds, other wildlife, and their habitats through education, conservation and recreation.

Tahoma Audubon does this through:

- Educational programs and walks, book club discussions, habitat restoration work parties and other volunteer opportunities at the Adriana Hess Audubon Center and Morse Wildlife Preserve
- Community Science activities including Christmas Bird Count and Great Backyard Bird Count
- Engaging the public on local conservation issues
- Advocacy to keep local working forests and working farms viable and important habitats for birds and wildlife

Learn more at: www.tahomaaudubon.org

